Mike Stern guitar transcriptions (Musical score, 1992 ...

Anyhow, I had been a big Mike Stern fan, but such a modern treatment of standards, I had not been privy to before. Sound, lines, chords, chops, cool arrangements, this CD has it all! Today I want to look at some chordal ideas present in Mike's "Like Someone in Love" solo, as well as Mike's chord melody of this classic jazz standard.

This is title track from Stern's album of the same name. The A section (as well as intro and much of the solo section) is built on a bass figure that suggests a loose E7 harmony. The melody utilizes an interval of sixth - especially at letters C1 & C2, which differ only in the bass line (the bass uses a lot of tritone substitutions at those sections).
